"The great controversy is ended. Sin and sinners are no more. The entire universe is clean. One pulse of harmony and gladness beats through the vast creation. From Him who created all, flow life and light and gladness, throughout the realms of illimitable space. From the minutest atom to the greatest world, all things, animate and inanimate, in their unshadowed beauty and perfect joy, declare that God is love" (The Great Controversy, p. 678).

keytext

"I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God. . . . And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.' "

(Revelation 21:2, 3, NIV)

INTO THE STORY

"Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

"The angel said to me, 'These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord, the God who inspires the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants the things that must soon take place.'

"'Look, I am coming soon! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy written in this scroll.'

"I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had been showing them to me. But he said to me, 'Don't do that! I am a fellow servant with you and with your fellow prophets and with all who keep the words of this scroll. Worship God!'

"Then he told me, 'Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this scroll, because the time is near. Let the one who does wrong continue to do wrong; let the vile person continue to be vile; let the one who does right continue to do right; and let the holy person continue to be holy.'

" 'Look, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

"'Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life and may go through the gates into the city.'"

(Revelation 22:1-14, NIV)

further insight

"In our life here, earthly, sin-restricted though it is, the greatest joy and the highest education are in service. And in the future state, untrammeled by the limitations of sinful humanity, it is in service that our greatest joy and our highest education will be found."

—Ellen G. White, Education, p. 309

Sunday

Read 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18.

After reading the passage in the Into the Story section, prayerfully reflect on the following words:

"The life on earth is the beginning of the life in heaven; education on earth is an initiation into the principles of heaven; the lifework here is a training for the lifework there. What we now are, in character and holy service, is the sure foreshadowing of what we shall be" (Education, p. 307).

Monday

Read Revelation 21:2, 3.

Read the Key Text. Consider the following ideas that pastor and author Max Lucado talks about:

"When the great Russian writer Maxim Gorky visited the United States, he was taken to Coney Island one weekend. His hosts took him on all kinds of thrill rides. . . .

"At the end of what seemed like a perfect day, they asked Gorky how he'd liked it.

"The writer was silent for a moment. Then he said, 'What a sad people you must be!'

"Gorky was right. Any society that bases its very existence on the 'cheap thrills' of the moment must be a sad society indeed.

"Jesus offers something so much better for us. . . .

"There is no greater joy than knowing that we are in the center of God's will. There is no greater happiness than knowing we are pleasing God. There is no greater satisfaction than the genuine satisfaction that comes from sharing His love with some other human being.

"The happiness Jesus gives us is lasting . . . . which will continue until the day He comes to take you home." (Adapted from Mark Finley, Solid Ground, pp. 384-385.)

Tuesday

Read Psalm 16:11.

After contemplating the words of Ellen White in the Flashlight section, pay attention to glimpses of heaven on earth. Keep a journal for a day, noting all things of "unshadowed beauty and perfect joy, [which] declare that God is love."

Wednesday

Summarize all of the Punch Lines in one, concise statement.

Think about what the new earth will mean to you by considering these additional Punch Lines:

- New laws of nature (Isaiah 11:6-9)
- New government (Revelation 22:14, 15)
- New lifestyle (Isaiah 65:21, 23)
- New worship (Isaiah 66:22, 23)

Thursday

Read 1 Corinthians 2:9, 10.

Ellen White once wrote, "Even in this life we may catch glimpses of His presence and may taste the joy of communion with Heaven, but the fullness of its joy and blessing will be reached in the hereafter" (Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 602).

In light of Ellen White's statement, is it possible to experience heaven today? If so, how? See also Further Insight.

Friday

Read Isaiah 65:17.

A little girl was taking an evening walk with her father. Wonderingly, she looked up at the stars and exclaimed: "Oh, Daddy, if the wrong side of heaven is so beautiful, what does the right side look like?"

How are you preparing today for spending an eternity with Him?
